

Donald L. Faulkner

Vice President

Don Faulkner has worked at Wiggin Properties since 1984. A Vice President, he has been involved in sales and leases of office buildings, industrial and retail properties, and land having an aggregate value of more than $60 million. He assists several national restaurant operators in site selection in the Oklahoma City area.

Prior to joining Wiggin Properties, Faulkner was a sales executive and major account sales manager at Xerox for eight years where his sales team was responsible for the 100 largest accounts in Oklahoma.

Faulkner was raised in Edmond, Oklahoma and has one child. He enjoys swimming, tennis and boating.

Faulkner holds an Oklahoma Real Estate Broker's license and is a member of the Commercial Real Estate Council. He received his BBA in Management from the University of Central Oklahoma in 1973.